

Helping Children Cope with Anxiety (Overcoming Common Problems)

Childhood is traditionally seen as a carefree time, at least by adults, however, recent research suggests that children are likely to suffer from worry, stress, depression and anxiety-related disorders. This book covers children aged three to 16, with an emphasis on ages six to 14. It looks at: ?The roots of anxiety ?Toddler fears ?Schoolchild anxieties including school phobia ?Developing skills to counter worry - are today?s children over-protected? ?Helping your child through a crisis ?The anxious teenager ?Mental health problems which need treatment ?Where to go for further help and support
