

That Double Dealing Dog: Last In A Long Line Of Fine Canines

d. j. posner presents her first work of fiction in a charming story of a young womans path through life and her ownership and abiding love of the dogs that have walked beside her. The story follows her character, Delilah, from her childhood on through her maturing years which culminates in her ownership of the worlds most mischievous dog, Miss Pearl Bailey. Told in a humorous style that has become synonymous of Posners flair, and artfully illustrated with captivating photography, her readers will swing through emotions of laughter and contemplation while they follow the story to the end. It is a must read book, for young and old, that will have you turning the pages to see what That Double-Dealing Dog does next!
