

My Momma Calls Me Ghost

Ghost is a beautiful white Bull Calf born on a farm at Dusty Ranch. One foggy morning Ghost decides to venture across the field on his own. As Ghost runs through the field in the early morning fog he causes quite a commotion. Traffic slows thinking they have really seen a ghost. It is foggy and there are many shadows roaming across the field. But only one white shadowy ghost. Ghost just keeps running back and forth playing in the fog. Many humans gather at the fence to take pictures. The Mother Cows gather by the fence to protect the calves. Ghost and Freddie run to the safety of their Mothers. Ghost makes friends with Freddie and after all the excitement of the humans, they go on an adventure to the lake to see the ducks, and make friends with two cats. They even see a colt being born.
