

The Beginning of Meet the Mush-Mice: (A Visit to the North Pole)

One day Santa called us, THE MUSH-MICE, with something important to say. He wanted to give us another purpose, other than playing all day. For each Christmas Eve we fill sacks with candy for each girl and boy. Santa knew that candy, not clothes, will give them great joy. The biggest thrill for them, other than candy or cookies filled with honey, is finding the one who has his sack filled with money. A jelly bean trail will help the children to find, all the sacks of candy that we sit on or leave behind. The sack filled with money will be the hardest to see. It can be anywhere from behind a chair to under the Christmas tree. So when Christmas Eve is here and the excitement is getting the best of you. Look around for jelly beans that are left by Number One, Three, or Two.
