

My Spiritual Journey In Network Marketing

The heart only sees what is in the confines of its own nature. Fear is my guiding light and to rule it is to follow my heart. J T Palmer-Christie Do you ever stop and look at the world around you and realise nothing makes sense? I have a deep knowing feeling that we are surrounded by magic. Its as if we are in the theatre of life playing and acting at being human while waiting for the show to end. Sometimes I can almost feel my wings unfold, gently lifting regally toward the sky. I feel my body take flight freeing every resistance against society, dogma and the chains of mans theories. I feel the fresh cold wind against my face, as my hair fights against the force. The lightness of my body exists because I think it must but as I let go of any limiting belief, I let go of the realm in which it exists and for a fleeting moment in time, I feel whole and free. Network marketing also known as MLM (Multi level Marketing) has been around for a long time and has proven in its own success record to be a great opportunity for anyone with a desire to better themselves financially, personally and emotionally, but still it conjures up controversial debates among all levels of society. Have you ever wandered why this really is? What is it that people fear? I was prompted to write this book from a catalogue of events and experiences that have taken place within my life and my journey in network marketing so far. The most prominent, being in recent weeks after I was struck by my own inner voice literally shouting at me to share my story. Now dont get me wrong, the information within my story is nothing new. The difference with this little book is it is based on a spiritual and personal growth perspective alone. So although there are tons of financially successful stories in the industry, this one is not making that the focus. We often measure our success in terms of money and material gains and in network marketing, even though growth happens within the individual, it is not something we readily see with our own eyes. We can watch a person change and grow for the better but we do not always see the catalyst of events that bring about those changes. I have always been passionate about helping others discover the strength to shine their own light and stay true to the power within themselves and I see this book as an extension of that. I hope by being honest and true, I am able to inspire others to do the same. As well as Jessicas own story and insight, this book has added stories from others, written honestly from the heart. Some of these people have just started their journey in Network Marketing journeys and some are already extremely successful (financially and personally). Whether you are looking for answers, insight or connection to your own intuitive spirit, this book promises to provide an appetite to find out more.....
