

Sammy, Dog Detective

Sammy is like most family dogs, friendly and lovable. But he is also different, because he is a dog detective. Sammy is part of a K-9 team and works with his partner, police officer Andy. He is also Andy's pet. Being a police dog, Sammy has many duties. He searches buildings and cars, hunts for criminals, finds missing persons, and helps with crowd control. He spends many hours in training and has won numerous awards. Let's join Sammy and learn how he became a dog detective and about his life at work and also at home with his human family.
