

Response to Richter

In 1623 a few of Boehmes tractates were published under the title The Way to Christ. It was well received by the public, but met with an immediate and fierce response from the clergy, who were enraged that an unordained shoemaker intruded on their professional turf by writing a religious book. Gregorius Richter, chief pastor of Gorlitz, wrote a pasquillo that sounds like a parody of Luther: As many lines as there are, as many Blasphemies against God, are to be found in the Shoe-makers Book: which stinks abominably of Shoemakers Pitch and Blacking; fy, fy, let this stink be far from usO Christ! the Holy Spirit hath anointed thee with Oil, more than thy fellows, and hath made thee a Priest. But the Shoemaker, the Devil hath defiled thee with Dirt, and Dung, and made thee a Heretic...The shoemaker is the AntichristThy filth O Shoemaker, hath exceedingly defiled OUR City. O that all those who read thy writings, might away along with thee into Perdition. O, now then begone, and come no more, that thou mayest miserably perish, and rather take a Shoe into thy hand, than a PEN. This is in stark contrast to Boehmes calm, well-reasoned response.
