

Seeing Home: The Ed Lucas Story: A Blind Broadcasters Story of Overcoming Lifes Greatest Obstacles

Soon to be a major motion picture, Seeing Home: The Ed Lucas Story is the incredible true tale of a beloved Emmy-winning blind broadcaster who refused to let his disability prevent him from overcoming many challenging obstacles and achieving his dreams. In 1951, when he was only 12 years old, Ed Lucas was hit between the eyes by a baseball during a sandlot game in Jersey City. He lost his sight forever. To cheer him up, his mother wrote letters to baseball superstars of the day, explaining her sons condition. Soon Ed was invited into their clubhouses and dugouts, and the players and coaches personally made him feel at home. Despite the warm reception he got from his heroes, Ed was told repeatedly by others that he would never be able to accomplish anything worthwhile because of his limitations. But Hall-of-Famer Phil Rizzuto became Eds mentor and encouraged him to pursue his passion - broadcasting. Ed then overcame hundreds of barriers, big and small, to become a pioneer - the first blind person covering baseball on a regular basis, a career he has successfully continued for six decades. Ed may have lost his sight, but he never lost his faith, which got him through many pitfalls and dark days. When Eds two sons were very young, his wife walked out and left him to raise them all by himself, which he did. Six years later, Eds ex-wife returned and sued him for full custody, saying that a blind man shouldnt have her kids. The judge agreed, tearing Eds sons away from their fathers loving home. Ed fought the heartbreaking decision with appeals all the way up to the highest level of the court system. Eventually he prevailed, marking the very first time in US history that a disabled person was awarded custody over a nondisabled spouse. Even in his later years, Ed is still enjoying a remarkably blessed life.
