

Parents Aware, Teens Beware

One young man commits suicide. Another dies in an alcohol-related car accident. Sherry Wisdom Tornatore's Parents Aware, Teens Beware identifies the perils facing today's youth, from alcohol and drugs to teenage sex, from peer pressure and bullying to self-injury and suicide, from physical and sexual abuse to games and manners of self-expression that may prove deadly. Parents, educators, and ministers working with children and adolescents will gain the ability to recognize little-known dangers, initiate proper interventions, and create workable prevention programs designed to instill healthy coping skills and provide a safer, more productive future.
