

The Apostle John - Gods Rugged Beloved

The Apostle John is the writer of the most popular books of the New Testament, particularly the Gospel according to John. Yet we know little about the writer. The Apostle John was an old man when he wrote the New Testament books - a humble man who tended to hide himself. What was the writer like? This book attempts to answer this question in the form of a historical biographical novel, with the old Apostle telling his own story to his young, Greek-speaking disciple, Papius. The young John was a rugged, ambitious and tempestuous character. The Apostle John - Gods Rugged Beloved, is the amazing story of a life utterly transformed, from that of a rugged, thundering fisherman to the Apostle of love. The book is also an ordinary mans commentary on the life and times in which John lived and Jesus ministered, providing ample resource material for those leading cell or Bible study groups. It also provides fascinating insights into the rich spiritual heritage of Johns Gospel. The story not only covers the ministry of Jesus, but follows the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D.70, leading up to Johns imprisonment on the Island of Patmos, his receiving of The Revelation, and his later years.
