

First Verses: Counting Rhymes

This is one of a new series of cassettes to accompany the successful First Verses poetry books (compiled by John Foster). These cassettes feature a selection of new and original poems set to music. In Counting Rhymes you can count dogs and purple monsters, count backwards, and even help Noah count the animals in, two by two. The musical arrangement is by Vince Cross, who has produced a number of cassettes for OUP, including the hugely successful Round and Round the Garden .
